Charles Barr-Johnston in Argentina—Charles continues to lead Bible study groups and also visits and preaches in other Churches. In a recent letter from Charles he thanks All Saints' for their prayer and financial support; he says it is a great encouragement to him.

Please pray:

- The Bible study groups meeting in Charles' home; Pray especially for Aylan and his fiancée.
- Aylan, lives in the church house where Charles is. His fiancée Nadia completes her nursing degree this year and they then plan to marry. Please pray for them and Charles' ministry to them.
- For Charles as he preaches in different churches as well as visiting former students who now minister in their own churches.
- For the Methodist Church members as they build their church in their spare time.
- For Charles as he celebrates his 80th birthday. He has invited many people, who he meets on the streets, to his party and he asks us to pray that the Lord will bless that time.
- For Charles' health as he has recently been diagnosed with low blood pressure after becoming ill while in the dentist's chair. Pray for strength for all he does.

Mon 30th Apr That when tested, we may not be found wanting

EASTER DAY

The Mission to pray for this week is:
COMPASSION—Ian Gardner (734742)

All Saints' Compassion children

Benewende in Burkina Faso, 12 years, has written letters to us and reports that school is going well but "this year the harvests are not satisfactory because it did not rain well. Be richly blessed by the name of our Saviour Jesus."

Please pray:

- for Benewende, that he thrives in his education and takes advantage of the vocational training in his development centre where he can join in for mechanics, animal breeding, hairdressing, soap making and gardening.

Nino in the Phillipines, 12 years,

- Please pray for Nino to keep on with his education so that he can have skills and learning to hold down a job without getting caught up in the drugs and crime culture of his country.

Anahi in Ecuador, 10 years,

- Anahi's favourite subjects at school are Art and Maths. She lives with her mother who is alone. She helps her mother around the house and attends Bible Class. Please pray for Anahi that she keeps up her school work and enjoys her Bible Class.

Kendy Love in Haiti, 10 years

- Please pray for Kendy Love. He asks for prayer for 'intelligence' as he dreams of being a doctor. He goes regularly to church and school.

Local churches.

- Please pray for the local partner churches who manage the development centres (6785 of them in 25 countries) day to day, that they have volunteers, resources and enduring compassion to show the love of Jesus.

Sponsors

- Please pray that we, being the Christian church in the UK, can continue to be Good Samaritans to love our neighbours across the world in Jesus' name.

Mon 2nd Apr Make Jesus the centre of your fun and activity today
Consider all your neighbours who spend the day alone

Tues 3th Apr For Andy and all who are preparing for the APCM
